Terms and Conditions and Assumption of Risk:

I understand and accept that caving is a potentially dangerous activity, and that while NUCC will endeavour to minimise any potential harm in its activities, there remains a risk of injury or serious harm. I hereby indemnify NUCC, the Australian Speleological Federation and ANU Sport for any harm or misfortune that may befall me during activities undertaken by NUCC.

I accede to and will uphold the Minimal Impact Caving Code and Code of Ethics maintained by the Australian Speleological Federation (available at <https://www.caves.org.au/>), and will follow instructions from Trip Leaders or other experienced club members aimed to uphold these guidelines.

I understand and accept that a NUCC Trip Leader maintains full discretion over the nature and conduct of a club trip or activity. This can extend to, but is not limited to: changing the location and duration of a trip, altering required trip fees for an activity, accepting or rejecting the participation of an individual in activities, and requiring the maintenance of ASF caving guidelines.

I accept the ANU Sport Club Affiliation Terms and Conditions available at <https://www.anu-sport.com.au/index.php/club-membership/>
